

The artist route — Door 1 and Door 3

Door 1 — electronic music · computer music · sound art · electroacoustic composition Door 3 — music production · studio craft

Sixteen agents searched these two fields and re-verified the results against the institutions' own pages. This is what came back.

Records in the two doors	882
Of those, real master's degrees	717 — Door 1: 592 · Door 3: 125
Re-verified on official pages	194 — 13 worth it · 54 conditional · 127 avoid
Reachable without an audition	668 of 717
Audition-gated	49
Strong chance and cheap and no audition	61
Fully funded	120

The whole dataset behind it: 1,635 opportunities across 78 countries, 1,300 of them real master's degrees.

The one number that should change how you feel

Only 49 of 717 programmes require an audition.

A portfolio is not an audition. An audition needs conservatoire performance training you cannot acquire in a year. A portfolio needs four finished pieces, and almost every door in this file opens with one. The admission gate is column H of `ARTIST-ROUTE.xlsx`, colour-coded, and the exact specification — how many works, how long, what format — is a first-class column beside it.

The verified shortlist

These were re-opened on the institution's own pages and judged for you.

Closed to you — and why

Knowing these saves applications, fees and weeks.

Closed by nationality

Scheme	The rule
Swiss Government Excellence — art branch	Limited to ~26 countries with an art reciprocity agreement. No African country is on it. The Swiss Embassy in Tunis offers Tunisians research, PhD and postdoctoral awards only
GREAT Scholarships (UK)	The 2026 list is 15 countries. Tunisia is not among them
Commonwealth (UK)	Tunisia is not a Commonwealth country
Australia Awards	Tunisia is not a participating country — which removes the funding route from every Australian coursework master's
Manaaki New Zealand	Eligible countries are Pacific and Asia only. No African country. Aggregator sites saying otherwise are out of date
Belgian fee exemption	ARES circulaire n°2026-001 lists 44 LDCs, 20 low-HDI countries and Lebanon. Tunisia is on none. (Tunisia is an ARES cooperation partner — a different instrument, for scholarships)
PAEC OEA-GCUB	OAS member states only
Israel	A Tunisian passport is not valid for entry

Closed by timing

- Chevening requires two years / 2,800 hours of work experience after the bachelor's, and closes 6 October 2026 for a 2027 start. You graduate now — you cannot meet it. It also caps courses at 12 months, which kills every two-year UK conservatoire route. Chevening becomes realistic for 2028–29.
- MEXT Japan closed on 22 May 2026 in Tunis. The next call funds a 2028 start.
- Global Korea Scholarship would mean applying February 2027, arriving September 2027 for a compulsory Korean-language year, and starting the degree in March 2028.
- GCUB-Mob (Brazil) — the 2026 call closed 6 July 2026.

Closed, discontinued or never existed

STEIM Amsterdam dissolved in 2020. UdK Berlin Sound Studies takes no new students. ArtEZ "Sound of Innovation" admits nobody from 2025–26. UiO Music, Communication and Technology is suspended. Aalto "Sound in New Media" has no 2027 intake (next 2028). Gothenburg has no 2027 intake. Liepāja University no longer exists — merged into RTU. Newcastle's MA Creative Arts Practice is suspended. SAE

Paris's national-degree master is gone; what's left is a school certificate. Le Fresnoy requires Bac+5 or seven years' experience. Sorbonne ATIAM is M2-only. Brown is PhD-only. NAWA Łukasiewicz last ran in 2020. Zagreb's composition degree is an integrated five-year with no master's entry.

Priced out

KC Antwerpen €25,000/yr · KC Brussel €17,501 · LUCA €9,824 · KASK Gent €8,800 · Wallonia (ARTS² Mons, Liège, IAD, INSAS) a flat €5,369 · JAM MUSIC LAB Vienna €22,742 · Uniarts Helsinki €28,000 · UiB Bergen NOK 401,704 · NMA Sofia €8,500 · CalArts $62,954 · RNCM £37,950 · RWCMD £37,500 · RBC £29,460 × 2 years.

Home, and the region

One Tunisian master's exists in this field, and it is film sound. ESAC Gammarth (Université de Carthage, public, free) runs a Mastère Professionnel en Sciences et Techniques de l'Audiovisuel et du Cinéma, parcours Son et mixage^{}. Location recording, editing, mixing, post-production — no electronic music, no production, no creative coding. Applications run late May–June.

Everything else came back negative: ISM Tunis, Sfax and Sousse (musicology and performance only), the Beaux-Arts institutes (visual and design), ISAMM (media engineering — accepts your degree but does not teach your subject), and every private university. Morocco's ISMAC stops at licence and caps entry at 25; Algeria's ISMAS masters are theatre and photography.

The structural finding is striking: Tunisia built real undergraduate capacity in this field — sound engineering, music informatics and sound-recording licences at Sousse and Sfax — and never built a master's on top of it.

One thing to check before any Tunisian public application: your licence is from SMU / Med Tech, a private university. Ministerial équivalence must be confirmed first.

What is still unfinished

Said plainly rather than left as a silent gap.

- Eighteen UK and Irish institutions were unreachable — Royal Academy of Music, City St George's, Kingston, UEL, Durham, Sussex, Abertay, Cardiff, Nottingham, Oxford Brookes, London College of Music, Brunel, Keele, Lancaster, Hertfordshire, SAE UK, UCD, Ulster. All returned 403/404/503 or Cloudflare challenges. Given Chevening's experience bar, the UK is low priority for 2027 anyway.
- Glasgow's African/Caribbean Excellence award — a full tuition waiver. Whether Tunisia qualifies is the single most valuable unresolved question in the UK.
- Tunisia's presence on the GKS list rests on one aggregator; every Korean government page returned 503.
- ISM Kairouan and ISBAN were never reachable — someone inside Tunisia should open those directly.
- 25 records in the dataset still do not state their award clearly enough to classify. They are on the Award unclear tab; email before applying.
- Several search agents exhausted the 200-call web-search budget mid-sweep and finished on direct fetching only, which is why some peripheral figures read UNVERIFIED rather than carrying a number. No figure in these files was invented to fill a gap.

What to do next

1. Build the portfolio. Four finished pieces. Every door in the verified shortlist opens with one, and none of them needs an audition. This is the only thing that gates everything.
2. Sit IELTS. Sonology needs 6.0, KAIST 6.5. Nothing else you can do costs less and unlocks more.

3. Email the four unknowns — KUG Graz (German level), HfM Karlsruhe (entry rule), Glasgow (Tunisia and the African/Caribbean waiver), and Santa Cecilia (confirm the non-music admission track for 2027).
4. Diarise the three windows that decide 2027: Türkiye Bursları arts 10 Jan – 20 Feb, DIGICREA's call opening November 2026, and KUG Graz 1 March – 1 May 2027.
5. Confirm your équivalence if you want the free Tunisian option at ESAC.
